

A photograph of several Marines in desert camouflage uniforms and helmets, lying prone on sandy ground. They are holding M4-style assault rifles, aiming them forward. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day in a desert environment.

EXPERIMENTAL TO PRESIDENTIAL

January • March 2003

Marines

For Marines By Marines

www.usmc.mil

Marines
Turn it Up a Notch

'BROTHERS' AT THE WALL • 27 YEARS AND RUNNING

A close-up photograph of a Marine's uniform, focusing on the chest area. The uniform is dark blue with red piping along the collar and lapels. Several gold buttons are visible down the front. On the left lapel, there are several colorful service ribbons. On the right lapel, there are several gold medals and ribbons. The background is dark and out of focus.

From the CORPS to the COMMUNITY...

“We make a significant investment in our Marines, we need to keep the best of them... For those who choose to leave active duty, we can improve assistance in their transition to civilian life while reemphasizing the value of an Honorable Discharge.”

— General James L. Jones
32nd Commandant of the Marine Corps

For more information, contact your local Hometown Link at:
www.MarineForLife.com

